Acquisition of properties

†2770-A. SHRI NARAYAN KAR : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) What is the estimated quantum of under valuation of properties for official registration of transfers in Delhi/New Delhi;

(b) how many of these properties are on the list for acquisition by Government and what are the details thereof; and

(c) by when these properties are going to be acquired?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) and (b) provisions of Chapter XXC of the Income-tax Act, 1961 empower the Appropriate Authority in Delhi to order purchase of properties pre-emptively before their transfer is registered. The provisions are applicable to properties in respect whereof apparent consideration is more than Rs. 10 lacs and all such transactions are to be considered by the Appropriate Authority. It is not possible to give the quantum of under valuation as it depends on the facts of each case.

(c) There is a statutory time limit of 2 months for ordering pre-emptive purchase from the end of the month in which the statement in Form—37-I is received by the Appropriate Authority.

(b) whether any new American Companies had shown interest in having collaboration with Indian companies; if so, whether they had contained of any bottlenecks?

@Previously Unstarred Question 2238 transferred from the 17th March, 1987.

††Previously Unstarred Question 2316 transferred from the 17th March, 1987.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BRAHM DUTT): (a) The Economic & Commercial Sub-Commission of the Indo-U.S. Joint Commission met in New Delhi on the 11-12th February, 1987. The Sub-Commission discussed a wide range of economic issues of mutual interest including the new round of GATT negotiations. Both sides noted that the launching of the new round of negotiations was aimed at preserving and strengthening the multilateral trading system. The Sub-Commission also agreed on the importance of holding expert level discussions so as to develop better bilateral understanding on issues involved in the new round.

(b) Selection of technology is primarily left to the Indian entrepreneur party who after exploring different alternatives selects the one that suits him best and thereafter applies for government's approval to the collaboration. The application is considered on its merits. While interest has been shown by American companies in having collaboration with Indian counterparts, no complaints of bottlenecks have been received by the Government.
